

UCLA Women's School

Leadership Academy (WSLA)

January 2021 - November 2021

UCLA WSLA is a pioneering leadership program for women. It provides women leaders with the tools and knowledge they need to be more impactful educational leaders. The 10-month program goes beyond the K – 12 leadership basics to help women in varied K-12 areas to shape their own stories and destinations.

The program is the anchor of an academy that offers program graduates continuing options for networking and learning. Instructors are expert leaders in education. Keynote speakers are outstanding leaders in a variety of fields. The program embraces social justice and is designed for working professionals.

Effectively leading up and down

Communicating for impact

Navigating public and private lives

These strands are informed by four themes

- Leading as a woman
- Making decisions considering data and multiple perspectives
- Identifying and pursuing professional goals
- Networking for career development

In WSLA, women learn from one another and from leaders during:

Three 2-Day Intensives

January 15-16, April 9-10,
and November 5-6

Four Online Monday Evening Small Group Sessions

March 1, June 7,
August 2, and October 4

Four Saturday Mornings

February 6, May 1,
July 10, and September 11

For more information or a Zoom information session contact Dr. Linda Rose at lrose@g.ucla.edu.
For application materials, please visit www.gseis.ucla.edu/elp-wsla.

Deadline to apply is October 1, 2020.

UCLA

Graduate School of Education & Information Studies

www.gseis.ucla.edu/elp-wsla